

Question 1076) - Can the Shafi' take the seller to court?

A: If the house is still in the hands of the seller, he may take him to the judge. The judge will not hear the evidence until the buyer is presented. The judge will then cancel the sale with the buyer's testimony. The Shuf'ah is returned to the seller and the responsibility rests on him.

~ al-Quduri ~