

Question 1100) - A man appoints an agent to buy a house for him. He bought a house. The Shafi' then demands the house. With who will his dispute be?

A: The defendant will be the agent. If the agent handed the house to the principle, the principle will be the defendant.

~ al-Quduri ~