

Question 1288) - What are the conditions to validly take a gift back?

A: When reclaiming a gift is permissible, then it must be through mutual consent or a court ruling.*

* Because the recipient's ownership has been established in the goods it cannot be removed except with consent or a court decision.

~ al-Quduri ~