

Question 1635) - She made Ghusl but forgot an organ or the water did not reach there. Can he take her back?

A: If it is a complete organ or more then he can take her back. If less than a complete organ then he may not.

NOTE: It is Mustahab for the husband of the divorcee not to enter her presence until he asks her permission or lets her hear his approaching footsteps. It is Mustahab for her to adorn herself to attract him. If he then has sex with her he has not sinned because Raj'i divorce does not prohibit sex. He thus takes her back through that action, as we have already mentioned.
