

Performing Hajj Badal without a Bequest being made

Q: Hajj-13: If Hajj was not performed despite it being Fardh and no bequest was made, can the heirs have it made from their personal wealth?

Answer: They can even have it made from the money left in the estate on condition that all of the heirs consent because it is their dues that will be affected. The permission of heirs who are not of age will however not be taken into consideration.

Fatawa Rahimiyyah vol.3