

Q: 5- Title: Supplications

Question : I have a very sensitive issue and a concerning one for which i am desperately seeking help and advice.

Me and my husband were married in early 2005. I am Pakistani and he is Gujarati. We moved in with my in laws and I had a baby girl three months ago. We have always had problems from the start there was a lot of verbal abuse, arguments and lies. Now my in laws have told me to leave, to the extent that my husband physically beat me so I have returned to my parents. Me and my husband have lost our jobs. He has had a car accident also. The baby is always unwell. I need to find a home so we can reunite and live away from our families so me and my husband can live independently, that's what both families want too. I would like things to be fine between me and my husband because he is refusing to live with me again. We have been separated for over two weeks but he is refusing to keep any contact with me and wants to divorce me but I want things to work out between us.

I would like some duas that I can read so my husband does not divorce me or stay away from me and we get back together and live happily InshAllah. I want us to be together again and live happily with our baby girl. My in laws are refusing to allow me to be with him as well and are encouraging him for a second marriage. They keep asking for the baby and it's difficult to get the baby back afterwards because they say it is their baby. I need desperate help to resolve this matter. I am seeking private help from you and hope you will reply the address I have given is where I was living and now I am no longer there. Please do help me with the best advice for saving my marriage and making my husband not remarry or stay separated from me.

I would prefer a private reply to my email address.

thank you - Jazak Allah Khairun

Answer :In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

We are saddened by your plight. May Allah grant you strength and courage to overcome your difficulty, Ameen.

We advise you seek the assistance of an Aalim who is also known by your husband and is respected by your husband. The Aalim could express your feelings to your husband and encourage him to reconcile. You should also recite the following dua after fardh salah.

Bismillahilazi La Ilaaha Illa Huwar Rahmaanur Raheem, Allahum-azhib anni Allahumma walhuzn

And Allah knows best
