Q: 213 ? Title: would it be correct to say that the red scarf is makroo to wear for men?...is there any sharieh proof for the way the saudis meet ie they press cheek to cheek and make a sound with their lips. is this a bidat?

Question

As salaama lai km warahmatullahi wa barakaatu.dear respected mufti saheb it is commom practice amongst the saudis to wear a red and white scarf,in the ahadith we learn that our nabi salallahu alaihi wa salam showed displeasure towards the use of red for men, would it be correct to say that the red scarf is makroo to wear for men?

is there any sharieh proof for the way the saudis meet ie they press cheek to cheek and make a sound with their lips. is this a bidat?

Answer

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

2. The method explained in the query has no Shar'i proof. However, it cannot be considered Bi d'ah,

as Saudi's do not consider this method as a

Sunna

or part of Shari'ah.

It is a method they have adopted to express their love and happiness when meeting. If they consider this method as a

Sunna

or part of

Shari'ah,

it will be an innovation. We have attached to this answer a detail article on

Taqb'i

(kissing). You may refer to it for your study.
