Question

if we got Ehtelam at morning after keeping roza then will fast break in Ramzan? what is the effect on Fast? Kindly give me complete details how roza Breaks. best reagards hamid cheema

Answer

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

Assalaamu 'alaykum waRahmatullahi Wabarakatuh

If one had ihtilam (wet dream) whist fasting, the fast will not break (Behishti Zewar, pg. 284; Zam Zam).

There are a number of factors that nullify the fast, including:

1) If someone ate, drank or smoked

2) If one vomited intentionally and it amounted to a mouthful

3) Inhaling smoke

4) Having sexual intercourse

5) Taking an enema (medication) or pouring oil into the ears

6) If one has bleeding gums and the blood mixes with the saliva, then if the blood is tasted in the saliva or is more than the saliva, the Fast will break.

If any of the above is done forgetfully, then the fast will not break. However, if it is done intentionally or mistakenly, then the fast will break.

And Allah knows best
