

An Error in Making Salaam

Q: Salaah-149: A Musalli turned to the left when making Salaam instead of turning to the right. Should he now make Salaam to the right and again to the left? Will Sajdah Sahw be necessary?

Answer: All he needs to do is turn to the right and make Salaam. It is not necessary to turn back to the left, nor is it necessary to perform the Sajdah Sahw. The salaah will be valid.
