

Question 265) - A traveller missed a Salah and upon entering his town wishes to pray it; or a resident missed a Salah and now wishes to pray it while on travel. What do they do?

A: The principle behind it is that Qada [compensation salah] is like Ada [original]. one who missed a salah in travel makes it up as two Rak'at even when already at home. A Salah missed at home is fulfilled as four even when done during travel.
