

Question 989) - A man confesses to owing 1000 for a sale and says that it is counterfeit that he owes. The seller claims it to be correct currency he owes. How will a decision be made between them?

A: He owes correct currency according to Imaam Abu Hanifa RAH. According to Imaam Abu Yusuf RAH. and Imaam Muhammad RAH. he will be believed if he said it immediately and will not be believed if he paused in between and will then owe correct currency.

~ al-Quduri ~