

Question 1183) - The agent is holding some goods which perish before he can hand them over to the principle. What is the ruling?

A: The goods are deemed to have perished from the principle. The principle is not absolved of paying the price.

~ al-Quduri ~