Question 1414) - A man found a child. He later wishes to get the child married on to transact is its wealth. May he do so?

A: He may neither get the child marrried nor may he transact with its wealth. He does however have trusteeship to spend from its wealth and buy necessities from it such as food and clothing.

~ al-Quduri ~