

Question 2199) - And if the child was born after six months of the day of her sale?

A: If it was born after six months and less than two years from the date of sale, the seller's claim will not be accepted unless the buyer verifies it.

~ al-Quduri ~