

Question 2215) - Can a witness testify to what he did not himself see?

A: It is not permissible. However, if a reliable person has informed him of the following then he may convey it - lineage, death, marriage, intercourse and appointment of a judge.

~ al-Quduri ~