Question 2379) - A man made a bequest of a third of his Dirhams or goats for a man. Two thirds of it perished. Only a third remains. What will the beneficiary receive?

A: If all that remains equals a third of the estate the beneficiary takes everything.

~ al-Quduri ~