Question

What is a meaning of Ashlatu Wassalumu Alaiyka Ya Rasulallah (S.A.W.S.) it is permissible to recite, as Barelvi recite on Jumma and says it is sawab, and holyn prophet (PBUH) is listen thru' angle of Allah. It is true, kindly give me right answer, Thanks

Answer

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

Assalaamu `alaykum waRahmatullahi Wabarakatuh

The meaning of "As Salaatu Wassalaamu Alayka Ya Rasulallah" is:

"Blessings and peace be upon you O Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam)"

Reciting durud shareef upon Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam) has great reward. Saying "Ya Rasulallah" without the belief that Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alayhi Waallam) is "Haazir and Naazir" is permissible. However, if this practice exceeds its limits then it will not be permitted to do so. It is permissible when greeting Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam) to say "As Salaamu Alayka Ya Rasulallah" when visiting his blessed qabr in Madinah Munawwarah.
