Question

This incidence was took place when I went to perform haj alongwith my wife. We physically met (intercourse) during stay in Madinatul Munawara. After hajj I asked question about this act with Imam of Masjid in Pakistan. He replied that you both (wife and husband) should re-perform hajj because your hajj has been wasted. Please tell us according to Shariyat.

Answer

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

Assalaamu `alaykum waRahmatullahi Wabarakatuh

There are a few possible scenarios to your question. If the marital relations took place:

- . After the wuqf at 'Arafah, then if it was
- . While in the state of ihram, then the hajj is valid but you and your wife must each pay the penalty of a budnah.
- . After coming out of ihr?m, then the hajj is valid.
- . Before the wuqf at 'Arafah, then if the relations took place
- . Before the state of ihr?m, then the hajj is valid.
- . After the state of ihr?m, then the hajj is invalid. You and your wife need to re-perform your hajj and each of you is required to pay the penalty of a damm.

This incidence was took place when I went to perform haj alongwith my wife. We physically met (intercourse)
