

Question 944) - It is apparent that the debtor owns Dirharn and Dinar. How will the judge see to the payment of the debt?

A: If the debt is in Dinar and he has Dinar, or the debt is Dirham and he has Dirham, then the judg will have his debts paid from that even if the debtor is displeased. If the debts is dirham and he owns dinar or vice-versa, the judge will sell the coins and pay the creditors.

~ al-Quduri ~