

Question 995) - If he does not have debts incurred while healthy, what is the status of the debts to which he confessed to in his final illness?

A: His confession is valid. The rights of the creditor take preference over that of the heirs.

~ al-Quduri ~