

Question 1045) - What is his liability for something which perishes in his hands?

A: There is no liability for something which perishes in his hands or through his work unless there was negligence.

~ al-Quduri ~