

Question 1102) - The shafi' acquired a land though his right and then planted a tree/ built a building there. It then transpires that someone else has a right to the land. What can he do?

A: He can claim the price he paid, but not the price of the building/tree.

~ al-Quduri ~