Question 1110) - Explain by means of an example.

A: Three men share a house whereby one has half, the second a third and the third a sixth. The owner of the half sells his half other two have claims to equal amount in it, the one with a sixth will not get less then the other.

~ al-Quduri ~