

Question 1149) - If the contract is correct, what may the worker do?

A: If the Mudarabah is general, and not confined to any specific time, place or goods, then the Mudarib may buy, sell, travel, invest and appoint agents as he wishes. If the capital contributor has specified certain places/goods then the worker may not exceed that.

~ al-Quduri ~