

Question 1156) - How will the profits be shared in the above scenario if the second Mudarib was promised two-thirds of the total?

A: They will share it in half as above. In addition, the first Mudarib is liable to pay the second Mudarib from his own money to the value of one-sixth of the profits so that his receipts reach the two-thirds agreed upon.

~ al-Quduri ~