

Question 1382) - What is the ruling of the Mazun selling something to his owner?

A: The Mazun slave may sell to his owner at market rates or more; but not less, if the slave is indebted. If he is not, then the sale has no basis because the slave and his possessions belong to the owner in any case.

~ al-Quduri ~