

Question 1642) - A man marries a woman who was divorced Mughallazh in order to make her Halal for the first husband. Is the marriage valid? Can she marry the first husband after sex with the second husband?

A: Marriage specifically on condition of making her Halal for the first husband is Makruh Tahrimi. Nevertheless if all the requirements for marriage are met the marriage is valid. If he then divorces her after sex or dies after sex, then she is permissible for the first husband.
