

Question 2061) - What must be slaughtered to fulfil this duty?

A: A sheep for one person, or seven can share in a cow or camel on condition that none of the seven's share is less than a seventh. Also, all seven must intend for the sacrifice. If even one of them merely wishes for the meat, then none of the seven's Udhiyah is made.

~ al-Quduri ~