

Q: Ilm-35: What do the Ulema of Deen say about the notion that is famous amongst the people that it was on the last Wednesday of Safar that Rasulullaah SAW. was cured of his illness and for this reason people ought to celebrate by eating, distributing sweets and going out to relax Is this proven in the Shari'ah?

Answer: There is no basis to beliefs attached to the last Wednesday of Safar. In fact, it reported that it was on this day that Rasulullaah SAW.'s illness begun, which eventually led to his demise. And Allaah knows best what is most correct."
