

Question 95) - If the body or clothing is soiled, what is the method of purification?

A: If the dirt is visible, then the body or clothing must be washed until the body of the dirt is removed. Pure water or liquid such as vinegar or rose water must be used. If it cannot be seen, such as urine or filthy water, then it must be washed until the person's overwhelming feeling is that it has been purified.

~ al-Quduri ~