

Q: 61 – Title: whether we can eat the sadhaka meat given by ourself?

Question

whether we can eat the sadhaka meat given by ourself?

Answer

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

Assalamu 'alaykum wa Rahmatullahi Wabarakatuh

At the outset, obligatory charity (e.g. a person takes a vow etc.) can only be given to the poor and needy, ¹ as for optional charity (naflly sadaqah) can be given to a rich or poor person.²

Now when the charity is given to a rightful person and thereafter he invites you, then you may partake from that meat. it will be permissible for you to eat whether it was given as obligatory or optional sadaqah. [\[1\]](#)
